

Courtesy translation

General decree of the Luftfahrt-Bundesamt on the extension of validity periods for licences, certificates and On-the-Job-Training (OJT) pursuant to Article 71(1) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1139 in view of the Corona pandemic

In accordance with Art. 71(1) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1139 in conjunction with § 35 p. 2 of the VwVfG (Administrative Procedure Act), the Luftfahrt-Bundesamt issues the following general decree on 23 March 2020 by public notification:

I.

1. By the present notification, the validity period of licences in accordance with Annex III (Part-66) of Regulation (EU) No 1321/2014 and permits for aircraft inspectors class 4 in accordance with the LuftPersV (Regulation on Aviation Personnel) expiring between 23 March 2020 and 31 July 2020 is extended beyond the respective expiry date by 4 months.
2. By the present notification, the validity period of certificates for aircraft type training in accordance with Appendix III of Annex III (Part-66) of Regulation (EU) No 1321/2014 expiring between 23 March 2020 and 31 July 2020 is extended beyond the respective expiry date by 4 months.
3. In case of On-the-Job Trainings (OJT) in accordance with Appendix III (Part-66) of Regulation (EU) No 1321/2014, which are still ongoing between 23 March 2020 and 31 July 2020, the respective completion date to finish the OJT concerned that has been approved by the Luftfahrt-Bundesamt is extended by 4 months.
4. The general decree shall be considered notified from the day following its publication (§ 41 para. 4 sentence 4 VwVfG).

II.

Information on the right to appeal

Within one month after notification, appeals to this general decree may be filed. These appeals shall be filed with the Luftfahrt-Bundesamt, Hermann-Blenk-Str. 26, 38108 Braunschweig, drawn up in writing or by declaration.

On behalf of the Luftfahrt-Bundesamt

Burlage